Customer Reviews

The authors have excellent stories, but my favorite is Love so Amazing by JoAnn Durgin because her writing flows so well. It is a five-star read all the way. I read Perchance to Dream by her and fell in love with it. Her books are wholesome, humorous, Christian, and romantic. Vivid description is used and the characters are well developed. You get your money's worth with well-developed characters in each story. Sample these authors and discover your favorites. I've found mine. Her stories are touching, and I love her writing style that combines humor with the Christian story even when it's a bit suspenseful as Perchance to Dream was. I couldn't put that one down until I found out what happened. Don't miss it or this fabulous set of stories by very talented ladies, and don't miss Love So Amazing because it truly is.

This is a delightful collection of six stories by bestselling authors that combine faith and romance and tell some wonderful heartwarming stories reflecting God's love and grace in the lives of each of the characters in the individual books. I have read each story in the collection, and definitely recommend the set to any reader who enjoys the best in Christian romance.

Each author has a different style but each story is interesting and unique. I really enjoyed this set. Several authors were new to me and I enjoyed the exposure to their work. If you're looking for enjoyable clean reads with variety, this set is a good choice!

This is a wonderful compilation of inspirational stories. It has introduced me to new authors and I have found myself searching out the other books by these authors after each different story in this book.

Six separate novels, six authors, Christian romance fiction in contemporary settings. These are each long enough that they have more reading material than a short story or "novella". Leah Atwood is a familiar author and her novel does not disappoint. Only one, the second novel was a bit light and almost akin to an old Avon romance. Each of the other five were well written, entertaining and will hold your attention. Considering the price, believe it was 99 cents, a good buy, a good amount of reading material for the price.

I absolutely loved each book in this collection. Well written and very clean. Strong characters facing life situations leaning on God. Vivid descriptions of locations allows one to truly see the story as it unfolds. Love stories and real life are at the core of each story and each author wrote convincingly. I highly recommend this collection.

I loved them all! WooHoo! I felt as if I was watching through a keyhole Amazing! It took me all over the board! Get it! These Woman Writers....Kick it Out of the Field!! YES!!!! Ivette Torres

I really enjoyed all six of these sweet romance novels. The stories are all about love and how God works and inspires us sometimes directly and, at other times, through people placed in our lives. I would recommend these books to anyone who has loved someone, is in love with that special person, has gone through problems in their relationships and watched as God worked out difficult situations as prayers were being answered. If you enjoy reading sweet, clean stories of God's love and inspiration for His children, you will really love this volume of six complete novels. Happy reading and prepare to be inspired!!! â^º
