Customer Reviews

FLY GUY PRESENTS THE WHITE HOUSE by Tedd Arnold introduces young readers to the home of the President of the United States along with the basic of US government. Designed for second grade readers, this engaging, informational book takes children on a tour of the White House. As Buzz and his pet fly explore the building and grounds, they learn about the president, presidential family, staff, and the history of the building. The eclectic mix of typography and illustration types are likely to appeal to young readers. However, they could be distracting for very beginning readers. Librarians will find this book appropriate for K-3 learners exploring the basics of government and the presidency. The simple story and field trip format will appeal to young readers. Other books in the popular Fly Guy Presents series include bats, insects, sharks, space, dinosaurs, firefighters, and snakes. Published by Scholastic on June 28, 2016. ARC courtesy of the publisher.

Detailed, with quick facts and tons of pictures for younger children. Fly Guy adds a bit of humor, which keeps the kids attention.

It's a great book introducing government to 7 year olds. Naming all the presidents and interesting facts was interesting.

We loved reading so many cool facts about the White House & many Presidents. The book has beautiful & colorful pictures.

My sons loved this book! Fly Guy Presents makes learning fun, lots of good info about the White House in this Book!

Love Fly Guy Presents books...even good to teach mom and dad some interesting fun facts.

We love Fly Guy books! This is very informative for younger readers.
